ASSOCIATED PRESS REPORTS.

Latest from Jamaica—1,050 Rebels Hung.

NEW YORK, Nov. 18.—The Jamaica Standard says that over one thousand fifty rebels have been hanged. It is probable, too, that before the court martial closes two thousand will suffer death for their attempt to exterminate the whites.

New York Market.

NEW YORK, Nov. 18.—Cotton steady at fifty-two to fifty-three cents. Flour declined five to ten cents. Southern $9 16 to $9 30. Wheat declining. Beef steady. Pork quiet. Lard firm. Whisky dull.

Affairs in Tennessee.

NASHVILLE, Nov. 18.—The cotton market was active to-day, the prices ranging from forty to forty-three cents per pound.

Murder and robbery are of frequent occurrence here.

Particulars of the Death of Hon. Preston King.

NEW YORK, Nov 14.—A little boy and girl saw a gentleman answering the description of Preston King jump overboard from one of the Hoboken ferry-boats, on Monday morning. They have been sent for, and from them further particulars may be learned. The hat brought to the city has been recognized by Mr. Thurlow Weed, Mr. King's private secretary, and Mr. Usher, deputy naval officer.

Mr. King stated to a very intimate friend, on Sunday night, that he would not see him again. Knowing that Mr. King had been, for some time, laboring under a depression of spirits, he took but little notice of the matter. His health has been poor for some time, and latterly he had shown indications of a softening of the brain. He had only returned to the city last Saturday from a visit to his home in St. Lawrence county. He went to the Astor House, where he remained over Sunday with his friend. On Monday morning he arose, dressed himself, and said to his relative, who slept in the same room with him, that he wished to take a walk and preferred going alone. About eight o'clock he went up town.

Since his return from the country he had suffered more than ever from depression of the mind. He was next heard of on board a ferry-boat, returning from Christopher street to Hoboken.

It was reported yesterday morning that a man had jumped overboard. Four of Mr. King's friends visited the boat to-day, and found that a gentleman answering the description of Mr. K. had entered the boat yesterday at 9 o'clock, and remained on the boat to the end, and when the boat was midway in the river, was seen by two children and the passengers at the end of the boat, to take off his hat and jump overboard. The alarm was given and the boat stopped, but the body was not seen by any one on board.

As the tide was falling at the time, it is probable that the body was washed out to sea.

The men employed on the boat had seen a man answering Mr. King's description get on board of the boat. All parts of this story are strongly confirmed. Mr. King has been much perplexed ever since his retirement over affairs at the custom-house, which weighed heavily upon his mind, and undoubtedly terminated in his death. Those most intimate with him have carefully watched his failing health, and lately he has been attended by a companion, who occupied a room with him at the Astor House and noted his movements. Mr. King was a bachelor.

The Florida State Convention, which assembled on the 25th of October, passed, on the third day of its session, by a unanimous vote, an ordinance declaring the secession ordinance annulled. There was considerable discussion over propositions to pronounce it, void, null and void, and to declare, as did the South Carolina Convention, that it always had been null and void; but the majority would not accede to either of the latter forms of wording, it being contended by the advocates of the ordinance as it passed, that annulling was equivalent to pronouncing null and void. A committee of five was appointed to wait on President Johnson the release of Jeff. Davis, Mallory, rebel ex-Secretary of the Navy; Mr. Yulee, ex-United States Senator; and ex-Governor Perry, of Florida.

The Columbia Phœnix says:—We are informed of the most painful and fatal occurrence on one of the roads from Alston. About one and a half miles this side of Hope Station, the hack, or ambulance, was precipitated into a gulley about fifteen feet deep. The result was that four passengers were killed and three severely wounded. Among the passengers killed was the Rev. Dr. James Cohen, so long known as professor in the Theological Seminary in this city; Mrs. VanWinkle, of Charleston; an English lady, (name not known) a resident in the family of Mr. Peronneaux, of Charleston; and a colored servant or nurse. There is great blame to be attached somewhere. Under our present information, we forbear comment.

—Intelligence received at Washington, from Gen. Howard, reports that his tour of inspection has thus far been of the greatest benefit. He has corrected many errors that worked disadvantageously for the Freedmen's bureau.

The Freedmen's bureau has received a communication from Surgeon Lawton, chief medical officer of the Freedmen's bureau at Augusta, Ga., in which he says that at the time of his entry there were two hundred cases of small-pox among the freedmen at Macon, and the disease was spreading rapidly. The city hospital, which is under the charge of the civil authorities, was also crowded with patients. A hospital is being erected at Atlanta. Surgeon Lawton is confident that the suffering in this neighborhood, during the coming winter, will be great.

—Mexican advices, via Brownsville, assert that the Liberals are still besieging Matamoras. The women and children are leaving the city and taking refuge on the American side. The United States forces are reported as cheering the besiegers on. It is also reported that the Imperial steamer Personna fired four shots among these American sympathizers, with what effect is not reported.

—A Senator who called on General Grant a day or two ago, remonstrated with him for keeping so many general officers in the service unemployed. He replied that he had several weeks ago made out a list to be mustered out, but that they were hanging fire in the War Department or some other place.

—Jeff. Davis is reported as having recently given in very brief terms his opinion of Fenianism and the execution of Wirz. Of the former he said "It's a bubble," and of the latter that "The Government need not have gone far to hang many worse men."

—Gen. Howard has issued a circular at Jackson, Miss., urging the officers of the bureau to endeavor to counteract the false impressions and reports industriously circulated among the freedmen, which tend to prevent industry and create disorder.

—Mr. C. P. Clinch, special deputy collector, has been appointed temporarily to fill the position made vacant by the death of Hon. Preston King, Collector of New York.

—The Norfolk Day Book notices the arrival there of Colonel Lamb, so well and favorably known to the people of North Carolina. He is yet feeble from the severe wound he received at Fort Fisher.

How they View it in the North.

Speaking of the result of the elections in this State, the Albany Morning Express says:

"The President is said to have received a telegram from Mr. Holden saying that he was probably elected Governor of North Carolina by a small majority. Previous reports elected Worth by over five thousand. It is to be hoped that Holden is really elected. The Raleigh Progress puts it strongly and correctly when it says that "if Governor Holden is beaten, the same men who did it would vote for Jefferson Davis or Zebulon B. Vance against Andrew Johnson." This is undoubtedly true. Mr. Worth himself is probably not a very bad man, but the animus of his election, if he be elected, is secession. It was the secessionists who supported him, and his election would be their triumph. It would be hard to recognize the will of the North Carolina people until such action had been reversed."

REV. DR. DEEMS—"The Watchman."—A late New York paper says:

"We are glad to learn that this paper is about to be published in this city, under the editorial management of the Rev. Dr. Deems, a gentleman of distinguished ability and learning, and of exalted personal character and well known piety.

A correspondent suggests that the Conference to which the Reverend Doctor belongs ought to make some arrangements by which he might obtain the charge of a regular congregation in this city. We are very sure that there are many here, even among those who belong to other churches, who hope that this suggestion may be favorably acted upon, and who would become constant members of his congregation if one shall be organized.

WAR "DOWN EAST."—The New York Times, of the 14th says:

We have, from apparently trustworthy authority, a rather startling rumor of trouble of a serious character on the Canadian border. It appears that a British officer took the liberty of sending a company of marines across the line into the State of Maine to arrest deserters: that his men themselves, finding they were on foreign soil, deserted him; that application was made to our authorities to have the men given up, which was, of course, refused. The report adds that the Washington Government, on being apprized of the case, immediately ordered Hancock's corps, or a portion thereof, to rendezvous in Maine.—Such is the story; and this much is certain, that a body of troops left Hartford at midnight on Sunday for Augusta, Me.

CONFLICT IN MISSISSIPPI.—The Nashville Press states that a conflict has already broke out between Provisional Governor Sharkey and Judge Humphreys, the Governor elect. Humphreys hates the Federal authority so badly that he wants Sharkey to get out immediately and let him assume the office of Governor, while Governor Sharkey, on the other hand, refuses to abdicate until ordered to do so from Washington. The President has instructed Governor Sharkey to hold on to his office until it is ascertained whether Congress will admit the Mississippi delegation, and recognize her as a State in the Union.

HOW TO STOP DIVORCE.—By a Prussian law passed in 1844, no divorce can be tried until the clergyman of the parish in which the unhappy couple live has had an opportunity of reconciling them to their chains. In the year 1864 there were seven thousand five hundred and ninety-six couples who wished to part, and of those no less than three thousand seven hundred and seventy-four were influenced by the clergyman to give up their unamiable intentions. In this way the lawyers lost no less than forty-eight per cent. of their expected business.

—Hon. Simon Cameron, in an address to several regiments of colored troops at Harrisburg on Tuesday, said that President Johnson is determined to deal justly with all persons, and "I know that with his approval no State that was in rebellion will be allowed to return to the benefits of the Union without having first a constitutional compact which will prevent slavery in this land for all time to come; which will prescribe no distinction of color on the witness stand and in the jury box, and which will protect the homes and domestic relations of all men and women. He will insist, too, on the repudiation of all debts contracted for the support of the war of the rebellion."

Despatches from New Orleans report unusual and mysterious preparations in military circles there consequent upon the reception of the late news from the Rio Grande. Troops are being sent to the Mexican frontier, the sale of transportation has been stopped, and vessels are being placed in a belligerent condition.

—The leading hotel in Washington has raised its prices to five dollars per day, for the especial benefit of Congressmen. The preparations for a regular scalping season by hotel and boarding house keepers are so vigorous, that quite a number of members are making their preparations to reside in Baltimore.

—Captain S. S. Lee, formerly of the navy, and brother to Gen. Lee, is about to take up his residence on the Potomac, in Maryland, and engage in agricultural pursuits. Captain Lee entered the navy in 1820, and is about 65 years of age.

One of the Richmond journals advises the Representatives elect from Virginia to stay at home until invited to take their seats in Congress, and in relation to the test oath says, "Woe unto those that take the oath—better that they had never been born."

Savannah papers notice the death in that city of Judge W. A. Forward, a resident of Palatka, Fla., and a distinguished and highly esteemed citizen of that State. Judge Forward was a native of New York State.

At a convention of the McKeon Democracy, held on Wednesday evening in New York, Mayor Godfrey C. Gunther was nominated for re-election, and Richard O'Gorman, as a candidate for Corporation Counsel.

—The culture of cotton in Southeast Missouri, according to a St. Louis paper, already meets with marked success. New Madrid and Dunklin counties have each produced 2,000 bales this year.

—Two men from the wreck of the steamer Republic were recently rescued from a raft off Cape Hatteras. They had been eight days without food or water.

—A street car was run into by the Richmond train, at Washington, on Thursday, and completely demolished. Several persons were injured but no one killed.

—Frank Blair has gone to New Orleans, and it is said that he will inflict as many speeches as he has a chance to down the Southern people.

During the war two colored soldiers enlisted in the District of Columbia for every white one.

THE CITY.

☞ Persons in city and country are requested, at all times, to furnish us verbal or written information of any events of public interest which may transpire in their neighborhoods, or of which they may have knowledge.

IMPORTANT TO BUSINESS MEN.—The DAILY PROGRESS will appear in new type and an enlarged form on Monday next, the 27th instant, and as we shall issue a large edition of our enlarged sheet to circulate gratuitously throughout the State, as a specimen copy, business men will consult their own interests by handing in their cards, so as to have them appear in that issue. We shall also revise our advertising rates with the enlargement of the paper, and we promise they shall be very moderate. Hand in your advertisements by Saturday next.

SEASONABLE HINTS.—The practical value of the freedmen's bureau has been seriously questioned by some of the ablest publicists in this country, but we are inclined to question their logic. The evils upon which they have predicated their reasoning are not justly chargeable to the system, but result most frequently from maladministration on the part of those into whose hands its operation has been confided. In this department we have been particularly fortunate. Col. Whittlesey, chief of the bureau in North Carolina, has, we think, given as much satisfaction as it was possible for any man to afford under like embarrassing circumstances. We are convinced that he has scrupulously pursued a line of conduct such as he believed accorded with the purposes of the government and the varied interests within his jurisdiction. All the circulars he has issued bear the impress of genius in which is blended the qualities of the christian and firmness of the magistrate. No one of them, however, is more marked in that respect than the one printed in Saturday's PROGRESS. It warns freedmen of the necessity of labor; tells them of the early withdrawal of government assistance; and of the enforcement against the idle of the laws affecting vagrancy. The class whom he addresses have only one wise course open to them: the immediate adoption of the course recommended by Col. Whittlesey. It is their salvation now and in the future.

It is easy to see what different conduct will work for them. It will demonstrate to north and south their unfitness for the new relation proposed for them and in every State of the Union we shall have laws establishing compulsory industry. The blacks can only defeat such legislation by practically illustrating that there is no necessity for it. They must go to work wherever employment offers for a week, month or year—but systematically as the white race, and it is only by so doing that they may hope to escape a curtailment of freedom here or colonization abroad. Let them look to it.

THE MAILS.—We referred recently to the fact that our Wilmington and Newbern exchanges did not reach us either expeditiously or regularly. It now appears that close connections are not formed at Goldsboro. The following note throws considerable light on the matter:

Editor Progress:—In your paper of the 16th, I see you have found out some of the causes of the delay in the Newbern and Wilmington mails. The mail arrives at Goldsboro from Newbern about 9 o'clock, p. m., and remains in that office till 5.10 the next evening—only 21 hours.

The mail from Wilmington arrives in Goldsboro about 12 p. m. and remains there till 5.10 the next evening—only about 18 hours. Who is to blame?

JUSTICE.

We hope that some better arrangement will soon be made to do away with these delays. As now managed, the press and the public suffer considerable inconvenience.

VARIETIES.—If you want anything to eat, fish, flesh or fowl, go to Variety Whitaker's around the corner, on Hargett street. His store is literally rammed, jammed and crammed with vegetables, fruits, meats, fish, fowls, and indeed and in fact everything that the housekeeper will be likely to want. He has the largest cabbages, the largest sweet potatoes, the finest apples, the biggest turkeys, the fattest chickens, the nicest partridges, and the freshest and best provisions, substantials and luxuries, to be found in all the region round about. Read his advertisement in the PROGRESS, go and examine his stock and buy what you want. You will find Whitaker and his wares all right.

A MEETING of citizens is talked of here to take into consideration the matter of high rents. We hope it may be held and that the conference may result in some arrangement between landlords and tenants to reduce the rates now existing. In other cities renters and owners of property have taken counsel together, and the result has been mutually beneficial. Let the experiment be tried.

ACCIDENT FROM A PISTOL.—A man living on Hillsboro street, near the railroad bridge, named O'Connell, a son of "ould Ireland," caused the premature discharge of a pistol, yesterday afternoon, in attempting to remove the cap from it while his hand was over the muzzle. One finger was torn to pieces by the ball.

AUCTION Bills, Business Cards, Circulars, Bill Heads, and in fact printing of all kinds done at the PROGRESS OFFICE with promptness and in the best style of the art; and as our facilities for printing are more extensive and better than those of any other establishment in the State, at lower rates than the same can be done elsewhere.

THE sale of furniture, &c., belonging to the late Wm. J. Lougee, will take place this morning. To those who wish to buy household articles this auction offers a good opportunity.

STORE ROBBED.—The store of Mr. James Rogers, north side Hargett, between Wilmington and Fayetteville streets, was burglariously entered Friday night and robbed of sundry things, besides between fifty and a hundred dollars in greenbacks. It appears that the burglars effected an entrance to the premises through a rear window, made a light and after ransacking the house and appropriating such articles as they desired, unlocked and retired by the back door.

Mr. R. cannot say exactly what his loss is nor has any clue been obtained to the perpetrators of the misdeed. The proper steps have been taken to ferret out the guilty and we sincerely trust they may be successful.

TOO FOND OF HORSE FLESH.—In spite of all our admonition, [illegible] on their mortality for Saturday, a freedman appearing on our streets well mounted and offering to dispose of a magnificent horse for $40. Again the city custodians made it convenient to be on hand and took rider and steed in charge. Upon investigation, it was shown that the animal had been stolen from a Mr. Rogers, a short distance in the country. The owner recovered his property and the darky went where all bad darkies go: to the lock-up.

THE NATIONAL EXPRESS.—We learn that the new National Express company will commence operations here to-day. They have opened an office a few doors below that of the Southern Express company on Fayetteville street. Col. W. E. Anderson, a gentleman of fine business capacity and formerly an officer in the Bank of North Carolina, has been appointed agent for this city for the new company. We doubt not but the increasing business of the country will give both companies enough to do.

RECOVERED.—We are informed that Mr. Stedman, of this county, yesterday recovered two mules stolen from him Saturday night. Under the advice of Officer Parker he proceeded to make search for the long-eared critters and found them near Green's mill, a white and black man having them in custody. On seeing him approach, the two thieves fled and Mr. S. took quiet possession of the mules.

CAUGHT THEM.—Last Saturday morning, just before day, two colored "gemmen" appeared in the city in possession of a fine oxen. The police suspicioned that all was not right and after due inquiry arrested the rascals. They were handed over to the military authorities and the oxen returned to the owner, Mr. Morris, who resides about four miles from the city.

SEE the schedule of the Atlantic and North Carolina railroad. We understand that the means of transportation on the line are to be kept to the mark necessary to the public accommodation. It is now pretty well equipped and those who control its practical operations are thoroughly competent for the task.

BRUSHING UP.—The legislature assembles here next Monday and the hotels, boarding houses, and other places of public entertainment are brushing up for the occasion. We like to see it—such movements are proofs of enterprise, energy and tact.

SMALL POX.—We learn from an official source that all cases of small pox have been removed beyond the corporate limits. There is not a case in the city and should new ones break out they will be disposed of in like manner instantly.

DAILY PROGRESS.

RALEIGH, N. C.

MONDAY, NOV. 20, 1865.

A Few Thoughts on Local Matters.

The people of this community of Raleigh, of all conditions, are very poor. The cotton and tobacco left in the country at the close of the war has been exhausted, the sutlers that followed the army and reaped a harvest from the soldiers, are nearly all gone; there is but one regiment of troops left here; the people in the town have but little money, and those in the country have less. The whole population are "hard up" for cash, and the most favored find it difficult to meet current expenses. There are more goods than purchasers; there are more mechanics than can find employment, and the supply of labor exceeds the demand. Many persons are doing nothing because they can't get anything to do—merchants and shop-keepers begin to find that the flush times that followed the advent of the army are about past, and stand around their front doors, with hands in breeches pockets, with no purchasers for their wares. No money in the country, nor will there be much until the farmers can recuperate their stock and energies [illegible].

There must be a crash, a general giving way and breaking up among business men, and it will come before the dawn of the year 1867.—Cautious men will move slowly, for they knew the storm is coming. As sales are falling off, merchants will buy less and less, and as a matter of course they must curtail their expenses. And so must mechanics and and laboring men. We must all learn to consume less. We must eat less, wear less and consume less in every way. Receipts are falling off, prices are falling, labor commands less and less, and the distress of the country and the people is getting worse day by day.

These things are so—we all know them to be so—and yet we have a set of heartless property-holders in this goodly christian city of Raleigh, with hearts as hard as flint, that have ideas more extravagantly inflated than the bridal balloon of Prof. Lowe. If a man owns a "shebang" on one of the cross streets, twelve by twenty, he expects to make up all his losses and support his family on the rent of the next year. Preposterous, ridiculous, brutal, inhuman! It is but right that capital should yield its possessor a just and liberal income, but to demand fee simple value for a piece of property for a years' rent, is not only unchristian, it is dishonest, and if the panic in the matter of rents continues, the end will be most disastrous to everything like improvement and prosperity. When a man or mechanic goes to rent a house, in most cases, before any price is set, the owner has to recount his losses by the war and wind up by abusing the "Yankees" for taking his niggers; all of which is preliminary to a demand of the most unreasonable character. Rents have been demanded, for the badly constructed, small stores on Fayetteville street, that the same houses would not bring on Broadway, and rents which no man can pay who expects to do a legitimate, fair business. Similar panics have prevailed in other places, but in no instance has it been as bad as here in Raleigh. In Norfolk an anti-rent meeting was gotten up and many of the property holders took part in it and against the usurious demands of others. The result was that rents were reduced; and we advise the merchants and mechanics of Raleigh to hold a meeting and set forth their grievances. As there seems to be a conspiracy among the owners of property to demand exorbitant rates, let the tenants take counsel together, not secretly, but openly and publicly, and say what they will pay. Let them propose to pay for all kinds of houses, in currency, double the rates that prevailed before the war, or an advance of say fifty per cent, on former rates, in specie, and if landlords refuse to accede to such a liberal scale, let them get other tenants. Meantime, publish their unreasonable demands to the world and caution mechanics, tradespeople and others against coming to a place where they are to be thus oppressed. Folly to talk about immigration and improvement so long as the owners of houses and lands make such demands. Instead of inviting people from the North or elsewhere to come here with their capital, we shall advise them to stay away; at least until the hearts of landlords are softened.

There is a general advance in prices, but not enough to justify the rents demanded by the owners of property. We think they ought to have double the rates paid for the same buildings before the war, or an advance of fifty per cent. in specie, but nothing more.

We have made these suggestions as much for the benefit of property holders as the tenants, for the very extraordinary course now being persued by the former must necessarily have the ultimate effect to operate most disastrously upon them. Raleigh may be vastly improved in population and business by a liberal policy on the part of the owners of property, but if the present policy of extravagant rents be persisted in there will soon be no demand for the houses.

If business continues to fall off for the next six weeks as it has for the last four, business houses may be had in abundance before March, and persons who have been so eager to secure them in advance, at such unreasonable rates, will find that they have made great ninnies of themselves.

Jonathan Worth, Our Governor Elect.

There is no longer a doubt about the result of the Governor's election. The trans-montane counties will reduce the majority of Mr. Worth to something between three and five thousand, but he is certainly elected. And while we regret that Gov. Holden should have had opposition and that the disaffected should have brought forward a candidate, believing that it will affect us injuriously at Washington, we can boldly and conscientiously assert that Mr. Worth is a most unexceptionable man. He was before the war, and during the war, and is now, a Union man, and we repeat what we have said before, he will make a good Governor. Our objection was to those who got up the opposition to Governor Holden, and not to Mr. Worth himself. As the term for which the Convention provided, unwisely as we think, and for which Mr. Worth is elected, will expire on the 1st of January, 1867, and as the Provisional Government will most probably be continued a large portion of that time, possibly through the whole of it, he may not, after all, have much opportunity to show his capacity for which have chosen him, but if called to the discharge of the duties of the Executive office, under a civil regime, we feel confident that they will be well performed. He is a gentleman of sterling integrity and fine executive ability.

Speaking of Mr. Worth, the Wilmington Herald, in a late issue, says:

"It cannot be too loudly proclaimed by the press of this State that the Governor elect is an honest and unswerving Union man. He was not opposed, certainly by this journal, because of any political disability or unfitness residing in himself. On the contrary, we took occasion to state distinctly, several times during the canvass, that we believed him to be as good a Union man personally as Mr. Holden.—The only objection urged against him was that he permitted himself to be used by those not animated by friendly feelings towards the government as a tool to defeat the President's man. This fact will doubtless prejudice the government against him, and operate to delay the restoration of civil law. Of this we advised the people repeatedly before the election. They now see an indication of it in the recent communication of the President to the Provisional Governor, directing him to retain his office and continue to exercise its duties.

It is manifestly the interest of every citizen of this State to so declare himself, and to have the State so declared, that the government will see the uselessness of forces to hold her in subjection. No one, we venture to say, is desirous of a prolongation of military rule. We want our own Governor, the laws of our own Legislature, the judgment of our own courts, and the security of person and property, guarded by the proper legitimate authorities of the State. To secure these things it is our duty to impress upon the administration at Washington our loyalty to it, and the loyalty of the man we have selected as our chief magistrate. Had he been otherwise he could not have been elected in this State. Our people are too [illegible] for compromise with avowed disunionists now, or even a sympathizer with disunion. Our Northern friends will do us the justice to believe this and let the fact be recorded. Let it be proclaimed and reiterated that Jonathan Worth was an original and consistent, unchanging Union man, and that his election is due to the fact that many of our people believed him to be a more consistent Unionist than his competitor.

Speaking of the Senatorship, an eastern paper, which says "it is especially desirable that no man be elected who can take the test oath," presents the name of Gov. Vance, so-called, among others. Hear it Andrew Johnson, hear it Cabinet Ministers and members of Congress from loyal States, presses and politicians in North Carolina, claiming to be loyal, are urging the members elect to the Legislature, to assemble on the 27th, to elect Z. B. Vance, a man who is held to answer a most serious crime, to the United States Senate. And these same men, instead of exerting themselves to send persons to Congress that can take the oath, defy the national authority by insisting that no one be elected that can take it. It is clear that there are papers and leaders in this State that are doing all in their power to prevent the return of the State to the Union, and all really loyal men should appeal to the President to come down on them with a heavy hand.

The Atlantic and North Carolina Railroad, Again.

Since our reference to this road, on Friday, we have seen the President, Mr. Thomas, who authorizes us to say that, notwithstanding the bad condition in which the road and rolling stock was received, freight is being forwarded as rapidly as the other roads can receive it at Goldsboro, and that the road is doing more business at this time than ever before. Daily freight trains are run, and though immense quantities of freight are being offered, quick dispatch is given to all. We are assured that freights, going north or coming south, are carried over the road at as low rates and with greater dispatch than over any other line. And, in addition to all this, more cars and engines are to be added immediately.

Hon. Kenneth Rayner.

Our distinguished fellow-townsman, Hon. K. Rayner, has been in Washington for some days. A dispatch of the 15th says:

"Hon. Kenneth Rayner, of North Carolina, had a long interview with the President to-day, on matters connected with the political interests of that State, including the restoration of the rights and privileges in the Union."

Fatal Shooting Affair in Wilmington.—The Herald of last Thursday says a difficulty occurred about half past five o'clock Wednesday afternoon between Mr. John C. McIlhenny and Mr. Wm. Lane, in which the former shot the latter with a pistol, from the effects of which he died in about fifteen or twenty minutes after. After the shooting McIlhenny was taken in charge by an officer, and at a late hour taken before Justice Cogdell, who held him to bail in the sum of ten thousand dollars for his appearance on Thursday at nine o'clock, to answer the charge. The statement of the principal witness of the affair, Mr. Watters, is that, in company with McIlhenny, they entered the saloon and ordered some oysters, and found Lane eating oysters when they came in. While waiting for their preparation McIlhenny and Lane made up a conversation, which finally drifted into harsh words, Lane being somewhat under the influence of liquor. Mr. Watters, fearing a difficulty, stepped in between the two and asked Lane to say nothing to McIlhenny, as he was badly crippled and not able to do anything, which, for a time, stopped the matter; a few moments only elapsed before it was again brought up and they got together, and McIlhenny fired the first shot at Lane, the ball passing diagonally through the body from right to left, and the second shot missed its mark. McIlhenny fell to the floor by some means, and Lane reeled towards the door, [illegible] it was ascertained that Lane was not he was put on a conveyance and sent off for medical treatment, but died before reaching his lodgings. The difficulty occurred at Storer's Wilmington Bar, Market street. The dead man was a mechanic and engaged on the Brunswick river bridge, or the Manchester railroad. He had just come across the river from his work. He was about thirty years of age.

The preliminary examination has been had and McIlhenny bailed in the sum of $5,000 to appear for final trial.

A tournament will be held in Smithfield, on the 7th of next month, to which ladies and gentlemen are cordially invited.

The Synod of the United Brethren's Church, (Moravian,) of the Southern Province, convened in Salem on Tuesday last. The session will probably be a protracted one, as considerable business of importance will be transacted.

The small vote cast in Davidson county, at the late election, is a matter of surprise and conjecture. We have been assured, says the Salem Press, that it was not generally known in portions of the county, where the people have no mail facilities, that an election was to be held, and this may account for the small vote, in some degree, in Davidson as well as in other counties, especially where leading men, apparently, took but little interest in the election.

A meeting of the Stockholders of the Piedmont R. R., Gov. Morehead, of N. C., presiding, was held at Danville on the 1st inst., and the following officers were elected: President A. S. Buford; Directors, J. M. Morehead and John Wilkes of N. C., Messrs. A. Y. Stokes, Harvey Stearns, W. T. Sontherlin, Wood Bouldin and John B. Edwards of Virginia. It will be run under the same management as the Richmond and Danville R. R.

The unwelcome intelligence reaches us that the steamship Twilight, which went ashore a few days since below Wilmington, has gone to pieces. It is thought that the cargo will prove a total loss. All day Wednesday, the sea was breaking over her, rendering it impossible for any of the vessels that went to her assistance to get along side. We regret to learn that a large proportion of the cargo was not insured.

A fire occurred in Newbern Thursday morning, at half past three o'clock, on New street, which destroyed the wooden building formerly owned by Mrs. Vine Allen, between George and Metcalf streets. It was occupied by Mary Leggett. Nothing was saved beyond a few articles of wearing apparel. The origin of the fire is unknown. The loss about $2,500. No insurance.

Georgia and the Nigger.

The Convention of Georgia has framed a Constitution from which we quote:

"The Government of the United States having, as a war measure, proclaimed all slaves held or owned in this State, emancipated from slavery, and having carried that proclamation into full practical effect, there shall henceforth be within this State of Georgia, neither slavery or voluntary servitude save as a punishment for crime, after legal conviction thereof; provided, this acquiescence in the action of the Government of the United States is not intended to operate as a relinquishment, waiver, or estopel of such claim for compensation of his slaves, as any citizen of Georgia may hereafter make upon the justice and magnanimity of that Government."

Now that proviso about "claim for compensation of loss sustained by reason of the emancipation of slaves" is rich. But of such are all who were born under the star of secession.—We hardly think that Constitution will find favor at Washington.

Relative to the government of the negro, the same instrument provides:

"It shall be the duty of the General Assembly, at its next session, and thereafter as the public welfare may require, to provide by law for the government of free persons of color; for the protection and security of their persons and property, guarding them and the State against any evil that may arise from their sudden emancipation, and prescribing in what cases their testimony shall be admitted in the courts; for the regulation of their transactions with citizens; for the legalizing of their existing and the contracting and solemnization of their future marital relations, and connected therewith their rights of inheritance and testamentary capacity; and for the regulation and prohibition of their emigration into this State from other States of the Union, or elsewhere. And, further, it shall be the duty of the General Assembly to confer jurisdiction upon courts now existing, or to create county courts with jurisdiction in criminal cases excepted from the exclusive jurisdiction of the Superior Court, and civil cases whereto free persons of color may be parties.

NEGRO SUFFRAGE IN WASHINGTON.—The Board of Council of Washington city have passed a resolution, nearly unanimously, that in the event a bill be introduced in Congress for the admission of the colored men of Washington to the right of suffrage, the Mayor be authorized and directed to call the Council together for the purpose of taking into consideration measures for holding a special election to ascertain the sentiments of the people on the subject. The Aldermen have not yet acted on the resolution.

—The negroes of Indianapolis are circulating a petition among the whites and blacks praying the Legislature to take the necessary steps to extend to the negroes in Indiana the right of suffrage.

—Suicides and elopements seem rife in all parts of the country.

BURNING OF THE MUSEUM!
LETTER FROM MR. P. T. BARNUM!
New York, July 14, 1865.

Messrs. Herring & Co.:

GENTLEMEN—Though the destruction of the American Museum has proved a serious loss to myself and the public, I am happy to verify the old adage that "it's an ill wind that blows nobody good," and, consequently, congratulate you that your well-known safes have again demonstrated their superior fire-proof qualities in an ordeal of unusual severity.

The safe you made for me some time ago was in the office of the Museum, on the second floor, back part of the building, and in the hottest of the fire.

After twenty-four hours of trial it was found among the debris, and on opening it this day has yielded up its contents in very good order—books, papers, policies of insurance, bank bills, all in condition for immediate use, and a noble commentary on the trustworthiness of Herring's Fire-Proof Safes.

Truly yours,
P. T. BARNUM,

HERRING'S PATENT CHAMPION SAFES.
The most reliable protection from fire now known.

DAILY PROGRESS.

MONDAY, NOV. 20, 1865.

General Grant and Mexico.

General Grant continues to receive marked attentions in New York. On Wednesday evening he and Mrs. Grant visited the opera, accompanied by Major Generals Meade, Ingalls, and D'Trobriand, and Admiral Ringgold. Subsequently, he and his friends repaired to the Union League Club-rooms, in Seventeenth street, where Benj. F. Beekman, Esq., one of the Vice Presidents of the club, welcomed the Lieutenant General in the following ADDRESS.

LIEUTENANT GENERAL GRANT: We bid you welcome here not for the first time. You have honored us as your friends with your presence when you came here fresh from your victories. We thank you now for the victories of peace—for the wonderful and rapid return to the work-shop and the farm of your soldiers, who, without tumult or insubordination, have fallen into their old places at home as promptly and quietly as you taught them while soldiers to form in time of war in line of battle. They have but imitated their great captain, who knew how to refrain from seeing the capital he had conquered, and has never yet entered Richmond since its surrender. The rebellion you have crushed had for its object the establishment of an empire. It was the foe of republican institutions, though disguised in republican form.

Grasping at the hopeful opening made by the temporary success of these conspirators, European ambition has striven to establish another empire over a sister Republic. Maximilian, by stranger arms, has been forced upon her brave and unwilling people.—Fouler wrong never outraged human annals than the present occupation of Mexico by the French. We sympathize with our sister Republic in her day of adversity, and firmly believe in her coming deliverance. A Mexican Grant will yet restore his country, as you have saved your own.

"The power that did create can change the scene
Of things—make mean of great, and great of mean;
The brightest glory can eclipse with night,
And place the most obscure in dazzling light."

GENERAL GRANT'S REPLY.

The General rose amid the most tumultuous cheering. He said: "I hope you will excuse me from thanking you at any great length. But there is one sentiment uttered in your address which is mine also. It is the one touching the future of Mexico."—[Cheers.]

The great fete to General Grant will take place on Monday evening, at the Fifth-avenue Hotel.

HELMBOLD'S FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU for non-retention or incontinence of Urine, Irritation, Inflammation or Ulceration of the Bladder or Kidneys, disease of the Prostrate Gland, Stone in the Bladder, Calculus, Gravel or Brick Dust Deposit, and all diseases of the Bladder, Kidneys and Dropsical Swellings.

HELMBOLD'S FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU FOR WEAKNESS ARISING FROM EXCESSES OR INDISCRETION.

The constitution once affected by Organic Weakness, requires the aid of medicine to strengthen and invigorate the system, which Helmbold's Extract Buchu invariably does. If no treatment be submitted to, consumption or insanity may ensue.

HELMBOLD'S FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU,

in affections peculiar to females, is unequaled by any other preparation, as in chlorosis or retention, irregularities, painfulness or suppression of customary evacuations, ulceration or scirrhous state of the Uteras, Leucorrhœ, and all complaints incident to the sex, whether arising from habits of dissipation, imprudencies, or in the decline or change of life.

HELMBOLD'S FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU AND IMPROVED ROSE WASH, will radically exterminate from the system diseases of the urinary organs arising from habits of dissipation, at little expense, little or no change in diet, and no exposure, completely superseding those unpleasant and dangerous remedies, Copaiba and Mercury, in curing those unpleasant and dangerous diseases.

USE HELMBOLD'S FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU

in all cases of the urinary organs, whether existing in male or female, from whatever cause originating, and no matter of how long standing. It is pleasant in taste and odor, immediate in its action, and more strengthening than any of the preparations of bark or iron.

Those suffering from broken down or delicate constitutions, procure the remedy at once.

The reader must be aware that however slight may be the attack of the above disease, it is sure to affect his posterity. Our flesh and blood are supported from these sources.

PHYSICIANS, PLEASE NOTICE!

We make no secret of the ingredients. Helmbold's Fluid Extract Buchu is composed of Buchu, Cubebs and Juniper Berries, selected with great care, and prepared in vacuo by H T HELMBOLD, Druggist and Chemist of sixteen years' experience in the city of Philadelphia, and which is now prescribed by the most eminent physicians, has been admitted to use in the United States army, and is also in very general use in State Hospitals and public Sanitary Institutions throughout the land.
